

Good News: a Bible Study in John Bible Art Journaling Printables

Do you ever wish you could be more consistent spending time in God's word?

Are you like me?

Do you have trouble figuring out what to read and how to study God's word?

These Bible art journaling printables are to use along with reading chapter by chapter through the Gospel of John. I have blog posts about each chapter at: <https://www.devotioninaction.com/gospel-of-john/>

So much good news!

This gospel of John is full of good news.

Good news about the character of Jesus.

Good news about the actions of Jesus.

Good news about what God has done for us.

Good news about how we can live for Him.

I don't know about you, but I am excited to read the good news in this bible study in John and hear what God is speaking to me through His word.

Grab your cup of coffee (or tea, whatever your thing is) and let's journey into these pages together!

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. In him was life, and the life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness, to bear witness about the light, The true light, which gives light to everyone who was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world did not know him. He came to his own and his own people did not receive him. But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God. And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. (John bore witness about him, and cried out, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me, ranks before me, because he was before me.'") For from his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came
